Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

- What events are typically covered by business interruption insurance? Business interruption insurance typically covers losses resulting from events such as fire, flood, theft, vandalism, power outages, cyberattacks, and, depending on the policy, pandemics and other unforeseen circumstances. Specific coverage varies depending on the policy and endorsements.
- How long does it take to receive a payout after filing a claim? The timeframe for receiving a payout varies significantly depending on the complexity of the claim, the insurer's process, and the availability of necessary documentation. It can range from a few weeks to several months.
- What kind of documentation do I need to file a claim? You will need extensive financial records, including pre-loss income statements, tax returns, bank statements, expense reports, contracts, and any other documents that demonstrate the impact of the covered event on your business. Photos, videos, and witness statements related to the event are also crucial.
- What if my claim is denied? If your claim is denied, review the denial letter carefully, understand the reasons for denial, and gather any additional evidence that contradicts the insurer's findings. You have the right to appeal the decision, and you may wish to consult with an insurance attorney.
- How much BI insurance coverage should I have? The appropriate amount of BI insurance coverage depends on your business's size, revenue, and the potential impact of a disruptive event. Consult with an insurance professional to determine the level of coverage that best protects your business's financial interests. They can help you calculate your potential losses and ensure adequate protection.
