the question of nihilism is always a question of truth it is a crisis of truth that causes the experience of the nothingness of existence what elevated truth to this existential position the answer is philosophy the philosophical will to truth opens the door to nihilism since it both makes identifying truth the utmost aim and yet continually calls it into question baker develops the central insight that the crises of truth and of existence or loss of world that occur within nihilistic thought are inseparable in a wide ranging study from antiquity to the present from ancient cynics st paul nietzsche heidegger foucault agamben and badiou baker contends that since nihilism is always a question of the relation to the world occasioned by the philosophical will to truth an answer to nihilism must be able to propose a new understanding of truth

don handelman s groundbreaking work in anthropology is showcased in this collection of his most powerful essays edited by matan shapiro and jackie feldman the book looks at the intellectual and spiritual roots of handelman s initiation into anthropology his work on ritual and on bureaucratic logic analyses of cosmology and innovative essays on anthropology and deleuzian thinking handelman reconsiders his theory of the forming of form and how this relates to a new theory of the dynamics of time this will be the definitive collection of articles by one of the most important anthropologists of the late 20th century this book is a historical account of how natural philosophers and scientists have endeavoured to understand the universe at large first in a mythical and later in a scientific context starting with the creation stories of ancient egypt and mesopotamia the book covers all the major events in theoretical and observational cosmology from aristotle s cosmos over the copernican revolution to the discovery of the accelerating universe in the late 1990s it presents cosmology as a subject including scientific as well as non scientific dimensions and tells the story of how it developed into a true science of the heavens contrary to most other books in the history of cosmology it offers an integrated account of the development with emphasis on the modern einsteinian and post einsteinian period starting in the pre literary era it carries the story onwards to the early years of the 21st century this book is providing a non preceded simplified knowledge and answers to the big questions for either a normal reader or a scientist it is trying to draw a united scientific picture for the universe shape and movement in whole and part depending on a unified harmony in between the science and the holy books far away from twisting any of them to be coherent with the other the author s innovative capabilities are employed to create design and draw tens of models to shape parts of a picture for a working dynamic universe like a natural machine with threaded parts the book is revealing the mysterious natural shape and expanded logarithmic spiral movement of the universe heavens boundaries since the big fission up to the big rip which affects physically and mechanically on its inner constituents matter and forces formation and movement such as dark matter galaxies stars planets moons electrons gravity electromagnetic waves dark energy etc to be shaped and moved in such a manner which we are discovering and going to discover as a natural fingerprint of the universe moving boundaries or in another way as natural products by the giant universal machine the seven heavens effects on our inner lower universe are discussed thoroughly via the subjects of parallel worlds multiple universes overlapping wavy orbits and higher dimensions this book offers a new exploration of the mythology of the hindu god siva who spends his time playing dice with his wife to whom he habitually loses the result of the game is our world which turns the god inside out and changes his internal composition hindus maintain that siva is perpetually absorbed in this game which is recreated in innumerable stories poems paintings and sculptural carvings this notion of the god at play arguee handelman and shulman is one of the most central and expressive veins in the metaphysics elaborated through the centuries in many idioms and modes around the god the book comprises three interlocking essays the first presents the dice game proper in the light of the texts and visual depictions the authors have collected the second and third chapters take up two mythic sequels to the game based on their analysis of these sequels the authors argue that notions of asceticism so frequently associated with siva with yoga and with hindu religion are in fact foreign to hinduism s inherent logic as reflected in siva s game of dice they suggest an alternative reading of this set of practices and ideas providing startling new insights into hindu mythology and the major poetic texts from the classical sanskrit tradition signposts to silence provides a theoretical map of what it terms metaphysical mysticism the search for the furthest most inclusive horizon the domain of silence which underlies the religious and metaphysical urge of humankind in its finest forms tracing the footsteps of pioneers of this exploration the investigation also documents a number of historical pilgrimages from a variety of cultural and religious backgrounds such mountaineers of the spirit who created paths trodden by groups of followers over centuries and in some cases millennia include lao tzu and chuang tzu siddhattha and jesus sankara and fa tsang plato and plotinus isaac luria and ibn arabi aquinas and hegel such figures teachings and traditions including the religions of judaism christianity and islam hinduism buddhism and taoism are understood as at their most sublime not final destiny and the end of the road but signposts to a horizon of ultimate silence the hermeneutical method employed in tracking such pioneers involves four steps sound historical critical understanding of the context of the various traditions and figures reconstruction of the subjective intentional structure of such persons and their teachings design by the author of a theoretical map of the overall terrain of metaphysical mysticism on which all such journeys of the spirit are to be located while providing a theoretical context for understanding them tendentionally i e taking the ultimate drift of their thinking essentially to transcend their subjective intentions drawing out within the space available some political taken in a wide sense implications from the above such as religio political stances as well as ecological and gender implications continuing the general direction of thought within what the author endorses to be the best in metaphysical mysticism in its historical manifestations the book aims to contribute to peace amongst religions in the contemporary global cultural situation it relativizes all claims to exclusive absolute truth that might be proclaimed by any religious or metaphysical mystical position while providing space for not only tolerating but also affirming the unique value and dignity of each this orientation moves beyond the stances of enmity or indifference or syncretism or homogenisation of all as well as that of mere friendly toleration it investigates the seemingly daunting and inhospitable yet immensely significant antarctica of the spirit the meta space of silence behind the various forms of wordy inter relationships it affirms pars pro toto totum pro parte and pars pro parte that each religious mystical and metaphysical orientation in its relative singularity represents or contains the whole and derives value from that and that each represents or contains every other this homoversal solidarity stimulating individual uniqueness is different from and in fact implies criticism of the process of globalisation while not taking part in a scientific argument as such signposts to silence aims at promoting an understanding of science and metaphysical mysticism as mutual context for each other and it listens to a number of voices from the domain of science that understand this
