a picture may be worth a thousand words but a few choice words can speak volumes if ignorance is bliss why aren't more people happy bottled water is for suckers clones are people too at least the war on the environment is going well don't believe everything you think the revolution will be tweeted long before blogs tweets and sound bites people were telling the world how they felt in brief blunt bursts of information plastered on the backs of their cars whether they're political or religious passionate or proud controversial or corny these brightly colored boldly lettered mini manifestos are declarations of who we are where we stand and what we'd rather be doing but as bestselling author and noted philosopher jack bowen reveals there's much more to the pop culture phenomenon of bumper stickers than rolling one liners and drive by propaganda no less in fact than a wise funny poignant contentious and truthful discourse on the human condition mixing pop culture with the ideas of historically prominent philosophers and scientists if you can read this exposes the deeper wisdom couched behind these slogans or as need be exposes where they have gone wrong if you brake for big ideas now's the time
