analyse van de hetze tegen het progresieve christelijke instituut gevoerd door het zuid afrikaanse apartheidregime this study explores and critiques law and law making in the nascent constitutional democracy in the new south africa with a focus on the complex roles of the executive parliament political parties the media and civil society the capacity and potential in the judiciary and the legal profession in promoting and protecting values and rights of equality and non discrimination is examined substantive equality and non discrimination law in theory and in practice is considered critically from a broad historical and social context that highlights areas of race gender disability harassment and hate speech socio economic rights and legal services international human rights law and comparative law aspects are skillfully interwoven in this pioneering scholarly work for centuries the story of south africa could not be told without reference to race along with its two cousins of tribe and class the colonial history of our nation followed in 1948 by apartheid as a system of ordering society ensured that racism is a foundational fault line in the nation to use biblical language racism became our national idolatry much pain and suffering went into the struggle to dismantle race as a basis for ordering our national life the father of the south african nation nelson mandela is a symbol of how much sacrifice south africans had to make to end racism in focussing the search light of scripture on the foundational sin of our nation roger deploys one of the most powerful weapons available to the christian world to a rather stubborn demon in our national life there are no slogans philosophical arguments or worn out rhetoric in the book for that one must look elsewhere this is rather a book about ordinary folk wrestling before a holy god with the sin of their nation and putting their lives on the line in this way they have become witnesses not in words only but in their daily lives of the efficacy of the christian faith to save and redeem us from the tragedy of racism in south africa the struggle for freedom was won largely through non violent means 95 of the struggle was non violent the non violent foundations laid in the preceding years are i believe what made our peaceful transition to democracy possible in 1994 rommel roberts words express his conviction which was underlying all his efforts as an activist opposing the apartheid regime in south africa in his book seeds of peace rommel roberts wants to focus on ordinary people who with their courage and commitment have achieved a change in south african conditions but have never been recognised and acknowledged in all his stories of brave women and men and in all forms of protest and human rights activities in which rommel roberts played a key role this incredible spirit of non violence was prevalent and finally successful
