a comprehensive guide to hinduism this book can be used by lay readers as well as students of short and full gcse courses in hinduism every section has a special section entitled breadth of vision that offers deeper insights into religious teachings this book places a greater emphasis on contemporary version of hinduism in contrast to what have now become antiquated versions hinduism is a living religion constantly evolving and refreshing the message of spirituality through the teachings of its contemporary proponents western authors writing on hinduism have often overlooked this feature many textbooks on hinduism are abrahamic versions of hinduism this book presents a hindu version of hinduism focusing on its core teachings of the divinity of man or spiritual humanism religious pluralism promoted as a central tenet of religion religion reconciled with rationality emphasis on experiential religion spirituality as the common subject matter of both religions and modern sciences hinduism in the modern world presents a new and unprecedented attempt to survey the nature range and significance of modern and contemporary hinduism in south asia and the global diaspora organized to reflect the direction of recent scholarly research this volume breaks with earlier texts on this subject by seeking to overcome a misleading dichotomy between an elite intellectualist modern hinduism and the rest of what has so often been misleadingly termed traditional or popular hinduism without neglecting the significance of modern reformist visions of hinduism this book reconceptualizes the meaning of modern hinduism both by expanding its content and by situating its expression within a larger framework of history ethnography and contemporary critical theory this volume equips undergraduate readers with the tools necessary to appreciate the richness and diversity of hinduism as it has developed during the past two centuries handbook of hinduism in europe portrays and analyses how hindu traditions have expanded across the continent and presents the main hindu communities religious groups forms practices and teachings the handbook does this in two parts part one covers historical and thematic topics which are of importance for understanding hinduism in europe as a whole and part two has chapters on hindu traditions in every country in europe hindu traditions have a long history of interaction with europe but the developments during the last fifty years represent a new phase globalization and increased ease of communication have led to the presence of a great plurality of hindu traditions hinduism has become one of the major religions in europe and is present in every country of the continent migrants and minorities are always at risk of being caught in essentialized cultural definitions and being denied the right to express their cultural preferences because they are perceived as threats to social cohesion migrants and minorities respond to these difficulties in multiple ways as active agents in the pedagogical political social and scientific processes that position them in this or that cultural sphere on the one hand they reject ascribed cultural attributes while striving towards integration in a variety of social spheres e g school and workplace in order to achieve social mobility on the other hand they articulate demands for cultural self determination this discursive duality is met with suspicion by the majority culture for societies with high levels of migration or with substantial minority cultures questions related to the meaning of cultural heterogeneity and the social and cultural limits of learning and communication e g migration education or critical multiculturalism are very important it is precisely here where the chances for new beginnings and new trials become of great importance for educational theorizing which urgently needs to find answers to current questions about individual freedom community cultural affiliations and social and democratic cohesion answers to these questions must account for both political and learning perspectives at the macro mezzo and micro contextual levels the contributions of this edited volume enhance the knowledge in the field of migrant minority education with a special emphasis on the meaning of culture and social learning for educational processes merry argues that most voluntary separation experiments in education are not driven by a sense of racial cultural or religious superiority rather they are driven among other things by a desire for quality education not to mention community membership and self respect
