Idioms (chengyu) are a type of traditional Chinese idiomatic expression, most of which consist of four characters. Chengyu were widely used in classical Chinese and are still common in vernacular Chinese writing and in the spoken language today. Chinese idioms are important for IB Chinese and IB Mandarin Ab Initio for several reasons. Cultural understanding: Chinese idioms are deeply rooted in Chinese culture and history. Learning idioms helps students gain a better understanding of Chinese traditions, values, and ways of thinking. It allows students to appreciate the rich cultural heritage of China. 1. Language proficiency: Idioms are an essential part of the Chinese language and are widely used in both spoken and written forms. Learning idioms helps students improve their vocabulary, comprehension, and overall language proficiency. It also enhances their ability to express ideas creatively and effectively. 2. Reading comprehension: Chinese idioms often appear in Chinese literature, newspapers, and other texts. Familiarity with idioms enables students to comprehend and interpret written materials more accurately. It allows them to grasp the intended meanings, nuances, and figurative expressions in the texts they encounter. 3. Writing skills: Incorporating idioms into written compositions and essays showcases a student's ability to use the Chinese language fluently and expressively. It adds depth and sophistication to their writing, making it more engaging and persuasive. 4. Examinations and assessments: Chinese curriculum idioms may be included in reading comprehension exercises, listening tasks, or essay prompts. Being familiar with idioms gives students an advantage in understanding and responding to these assessments effectively. Overall, learning Chinese idioms enhances students' language proficiency, cultural knowledge, and communication skills, all of which are crucial aspects of the IB Chinese curriculum.

IB Chinese A HL First Language A Literature course which introduces students to the analysis of literary texts. It is the course through which the IB's policy of mother tongue entitlement is delivered. The course is organized into three areas of exploration and seven central concepts and focuses on the study of literary works together. The three areas of exploration of the course add up to a comprehensive exploration of literature from a variety of cultures, literary forms, and periods. Students learn to appreciate the artistry of literature and develop the ability to reflect critically on their reading.
