the growing mobility of people within and into the asia pacific region has created environments of increasing diversity as nations become hosts to both permanent and temporary multicultural societies how do we begin to gauge the impact of mobility and multiculturalism on individuals and groups in this diverse region today the authors of the asia pacific in the age of transnational mobility turn to social media as a tool of inquiry to map how mobile subjects and minorities articulate their sense of community and identity the authors see social media as a platform that allows users to document and express their individual and collective identities sometimes in restrictive communication environments while providing a sense of belonging and agency they present original empirical work that attempts to help readers understand how mobile subjects who circulate in the asia pacific create a sense of community for themselves and articulate their ethnic ideological and national identities

based on extensive empirical work by a cross european group of researchers this book assesses the impact of the creation of the european external action service eeas on the national foreign policy making processes and institutions of the eu member states as such the contributions cover both the involvement of the national diplomatic and foreign policy actors in shaping the outlook of the eeas

and its mission as well as the changes or not it has produced for those actors of the member states the analysis draws in theoretical frameworks from europeanization and socialization but also from intergovernmental frameworks of policy making within the european union an introduction by the editors outlines the issues and trends examined in the book and establishes the theoretical and methodological framework split into 2 sections part i ees and national diplomacies as part of global and european structures has contributions by richard whitman rosa balfour christian lequesne caterina carta and simon duke part ii national diplomacies shaping and being shaped by the ees is covered by daniel fiott fabien terpan cornelius adebahr andrea frontini ignacio molina and alicia sorroza laura c ferreira pereira alena vysotskaya g vieira and louise van schaik grzegorz gromadzki mark rhinard jakob lewander and sara norrevik sabina kajnc lange ruby gropas and george tzogopoulos vit beneš and kristi raik this book is much needed especially in an era when the eu is trying to pull its weight in the international sphere e g syria iran the arab spring chinese relations and emerging powers but also at a time when the eu is trying to recalibrate its institutional structure in light of the current financial predicaments and questions on the democratic legitimacy of the european project
