the book interprets the cuban revolutionary movement from 1868 to 1959 as a continuous process that sought political independence and social and economic transformation of colonial and neocolonial structures cuba is a symbol of hope for the third world the cuban revolution took power from a national elite subordinate to foreign capital and placed it in the hands of the people and it subsequently developed alternative structures of popular democracy that have functioned to keep delegates of the people in power while cuba has persisted the peoples of the third world knocked down by the neoliberal project have found social movement and political life a renewal that is especially evident in latin america and the non aligned movement at the same time the capitalist world economy increasingly reveals its unsustainability and the global elite demonstrate its incapacity to respond to a multifaceted and sustained global crisis these dynamics establish conditions for popular democratic socialist revolutions in the north

this pioneering volume explores the extraordinary portuguese poet fernando pessoa 1888 1935 and his relationship to philosophy on the one hand this book reveals pessoa s serious knowledge of philosophy and playful philosophical explorations and how he has the gift of synthesizing appropriating and subverting complex ideas into his art and on the other hand the chapters shed new light on central aspects and problems of philosophy through the prism of pessoa s diverse writings the volume includes sixteen new essays from an international group of scholars analyzing pessoa s multifaceted poetic work alongside philosophical themes and movements from conceptions of time ancient and modern aesthetics philosophy of language transcendentalism immanence and nihilism to islamic philosophy indian philosophy daoism neo paganism and the philosophy of the self the breadth of his work provides a springboard for new thinking on the aesthetic and the spiritual the logic of value and capitalist modernity and ecological thought and postmodernism the volume also includes the most complete english translation of pessoa s text written by his heteronym Álvaro de campos called notes for the memory of my master caeiro

the last two decades have witnessed an exponential growth in debates on the use of foreign law by courts different labels have been attached to the same phenomenon judges drawing inspiration from outside of their national legal systems for solving purely domestic disputes by doing so the judges are said to engage in cross border judicial dialogues they are creating a larger transnational community of judges this book puts similar claims to test in relation to highest national jurisdictions supreme and constitutional courts in europe today how often and why do judges choose to draw inspiration from foreign materials in solving domestic cases the book addresses these questions from both an empirical and a theoretical angle empirically the genuine use of comparative arguments by national highest courts in five european jurisdictions is examined england and wales france germany the czech republic and slovakia on the basis of comparative discussion of the practice and its national theoretical underpinning in these and partially also in other european systems an overreaching theoretical framework for the current judicial use of comparative arguments is developed drawing on the author s own past judicial experience in a national supreme court this book is a critical account of judicial engagement with foreign authority in europe today the sober middle ground inductively conceptualized and presented in this book provides solid jurisprudential foundations for the ongoing use of comparative arguments by courts as well as its further scholarly discussion
