transnational belonging and female agency in the arts interrogates the politics of space expressed via womxn s artistic practices which prioritise solidarity and collaboration across borders imagining attentive geographies of difference it considers belonging as a manifestation of processes of becoming that traverse borders and generate new spaces and forms of difference in doing so the book aims to catalyse mutual social relations founded upon responsibility and response ability to each other the transnational framework activates concerns around belonging at a time of intensified divisions partitioning global narratives unequal trajectories and increasing violence against bodies of the most vulnerable largely founded on eurocentric paradigms of political economic and cultural superiority the contributors engage in a conversation signalling transversal thinking and artmaking in order to articulate and activate in between spaces this is to welcome co affective models of belonging that question versatile embodiments of subjectivity as both agentic and as interrelational organised around the triangulation of modes of belonging spatial affective and collective overarched by a transnational lens that acknowledges non hierarchical local and socially relevant genealogies against universalising politics of globalisation these essays consider afresh ways in which female agency disrupts borders and activates concerns around different forms of belonging citizenship and transnationalisms cover image credit keren anavy garden of living images 2018 general installation view detail courtesy of the artist and wave hill photographer stefan hagen

when charlotte began writing the heroes and heroines of the novels prepared for young ladies and gentlemen were ideally perfect the approach of the heroine was announced by the rustling of voluminous muslin whose quality was described as the whitest and finest when she came tripping in sandals long ringlets were seen falling over a drooping head and a swan neck and she was declared tender soft languishing and innocent the hero was the pink of kindness and graciousness and when after three volumes of courtship he won a reluctant bride he was told to be never cross or wayward with her the best novels of this species a lingering on of the sir charles grandison tradition were those written by mrs anne marsh caldwell even emily and anne brontë were careful to keep their heroines beautiful in wildfell hall and wuthering heights though to no such extreme charlotte told emily and anne that they were morally wrong in adopting the conventional heroine and said to them i will show you a heroine as plain and as small as myself who shall be as interesting as any of yours 11 charlotte brontë s letter quoted in w l cross the development of the english novel london macmillan co ltd 1899 rpt 1964 p 228 from privacy concerns regarding google street view to surveillance photography s association with terrorism and sexual predators photography as an art has become complex terrain upon which anxieties about public space have been played out yet the photographic threat is not limited to the image alone a range of social technological and political issues converge in these rising anxieties and affect the practice circulation and consumption of contemporary public photography today the culture of photography in public space collects essays and photographs that offer a new response to these restrictions the events and the anxieties that give rise to them
