song for my father dramatises the complex losses in the life of a child whose parents fail to protect her from their own rage and sense of failure the novel's rhythms are at times deliberately fragmented and halting mirroring the broken and hesitant spirit of its narrator helpless in the face of her parents battles sarah turns to fantasy for escape their persistent conflicts however continue to shape her responses to life as an adult she unconsciously engineers the collapse of any chance for personal happiness ironically it is a sudden mysterious and traumatic disappearance which saves the protagonist this major crisis proves to be the catalyst for a liberating epiphany and healing catharsis and the final flight from darkness in this ambitious and searching work cooper crafts a memoir that illuminates the enduring intersecting mysteries of family memory and identity in a remote corner of the world forgotten for nearly three thousand years lived an enclave of kurdisch jews so isolated that they still spoke aramaic the language of jesus mostly illiterate they were self made mystics and gifted storytellers and humble peddlers who dwelt in harmony with their muslim and christian neighbors in the mountains of northern iraq to these descendants of the lost tribes of israel yona sabar was born yona's son ariel grew up in los angeles where yona had become an esteemed professor dedicating his career to preserving his people's traditions ariel wanted nothing to do with his father's strange immigrant heritage until he had a son of his own ariel sabar brings to life the ancient town of zakho discovering his family's place in the sweeping saga of middle eastern history this powerful book is an improbable story of tolerance and hope set in what today is the very center of the world's attention burton traces the evolution of edgefield county from the antebellum period through reconstruction and beyond from amassed information on every household in this large rural community he tests the many generalizations about southern black and white families of this period and finds that they were strikingly similar wealth rather than race or class was the main factor that influenced family structure and the matriarchal family was but a myth jack's mother is a storyteller a game player on an impulsive trip out to the family lake house she spins a macabre tale for jack and his father a tale that as the weekend progresses jack finds more and more difficult to untangle from his family's real life joe hill is the new york times bestselling author of noir 2 horns and heart shaped box and the prize winning story collection 20th century ghosts he is also the co author with stephen king of in the tall grass for the first two years of her life she feels love but suddenly her protector is gone she's too young to even know her mother is gone from the innocence of childhood to the growing sickness and abuse in her life she is confused and full of fear how will she ever make it when there is no time to wonder only time to survive she wants to be the good little girl and please her family she wants to be loved she wants to be right with god the confusion pain and abuse are unbearable the family sickness is more than one can comprehend what she is asked to do is impossible for the sake of her siblings she must do it but is she strong enough walk through the journey with her from her earthly father to her heavenly father
