this book is very timely in view of the growing importance of asia over the past ten years many asian economies ranging from the newly industrialized economies of taiwan hong kong singapore and south korea to the semi developing economies of malaysia indonesia and thailand have all experienced tremendous economic growth unparalleled in any part of the world with the opening of china and other centrally planned economies like vietnam myanmar laos and cambodia asia is on the path to astronomical economic growth

this casebook complements and accompanies philip kotler and gary armstrong's principles of marketing by providing 37 cases on asian companies operating in asia and or outside asia as well as about non asian companies operating within asia today's dynamic and uncertain environment has contributed to the changing nature of markets in order for companies to keep up they will need to embark on new wave marketing to ride the wave of opportunities provided by the changes in the environment such as the digital revolution this is critical all over the world but none more so than in asia asia is not only the world's biggest market but also the fastest growing it is therefore essential for marketers to understand the dynamics of asian companies and what they have to offer to the wider world this book analyzes competitive companies from 18 asian countries that have successfully practiced new wave marketing and in so doing provide invaluable lessons that others may find useful comprehensive case studies are used not only to describe how some of asia s best companies compete but also to analyze the concepts of new wave marketing their actions are based on this book is unique in its depth and breadth of cases from companies in the asean region to north east asia including mongolia and saarc the authors of this book professor philip kotler arguably the father of modern marketing hermawan kartajaya from indonesia and hooi den huan from singapore are all experts in their field and have previously produced other bestsellers this book with its focus on real life examples of competitive asian companies in the age of digitalization complements the principles and theoretical frameworks of new wave marketing that are detailed in its sister book together these books provide a comprehensive picture of the changing asian marketing landscape a practical step by step guide for international marketers who are targeting the challenging markets of the asia pacific region packed with useful information and real world examples marketing across cultures in asia is based on the two authors 35 years of combined hands on experience of managing marketing and negotiating in asia this first asian adaptation of the seventh edition of marketing an introduction written by professors gary armstrong and philip kotler builds on its strong foundations this book presents an innovative framework for understanding and learning about marketing today s marketing is all about building profitable customer relationships it starts with understanding consumer needs and wants deciding which target markets the organization can serve best and developing a compelling value proposition by which the organization can attract keep and grow targeted consumers if the organization does these things well it will reap the rewards in terms of market share profits and customer equity simply put marketing is the art and science of creating value for customers in order to capture value from customers in return from beginning to end the first edition of marketing an introduction an asian perspective presents and develops this customer relationships customer equity framework every chapter contains many examples and references of these marketing concepts used in the asian context as well as how they are employed in other regions asia is the most populated geographical region with 50 of the world s inhabitants living there coupled that with the impressive economic growth rates in many asian countries the region provides a very attractive and lucrative market for many businesses big and small and from all industries in addition asia is also a dynamic market that significantly grows with developments in technology and digitalization for example a research by google and temasek shows that southeast asia is the world s fastest growing internet region the internet economy in southeast asia is expected to grow by 6 5 times from us 31 billion in 2015 to us 197 billion in 2025 all these make it critical for marketers whether domestic regional or global to stay in touch if not ahead in their understanding of what is happening in asia from a marketing perspective and what asia has to offer to the world one phenomenon happening in the asian market and which marketers should pay utmost attention to is the rapidly unfolding digital revolution that has fundamentally transformed not just the extent but also the nature of competition what makes it even more challenging and complicating is also how such a revolution impacts on consumer and business buying behavior disruptive technologies supported by this digital revolution have brought in new competitors and enabled existing competitors to surpass the conventional boundaries which we may be quite familiar with asian consumers have become more educated and connected and have embraced newer ways of selecting buying and using products and services in this book the father of modern marketing professor philip kotler has collaborated with two marketing experts from asia hermawan kartajaya from indonesia and hooi den huan from singapore to publish a book on marketing for competitiveness asia to the world in the age of digital consumers this book argues that marketing is no longer just vertical but has encompassed a new more horizontal paradigm in addition to many new concepts and frameworks this book includes a plethora of real world examples from various countries in asia which will help to shed light on how companies both asian and global compete in asia useful lessons can be drawn by all businesses in the world on how to win the mind heart and spirit of the asian consumer digital and non digital at the beginning of the 21st century headlines report how cities are going bankrupt states are running large deficits and nations are stuck in high debt and stagnation this text argues that thousands of places are in crisis and can no longer rely on national policies for protection the authors show how places in asia can become attractive products by effectively communicating their special qualities and attracting investment international marketing 6e is written from a wholly australasian perspective and covers issues unique to local marketers and managers looking towards the asia pacific region the european union and beyond it presents a wide range of contemporary issues faced by subsidiaries of multinational enterprises mnes as well as small and medium scale enterprises smes mainly exporters which make up the vast bulk of firms involved in international business in the australasian region international marketing 6e clearly demonstrates the links between the different stages of international marketing connecting analysis with planning planning with strategy and strategy with implementation key concepts are brought to life with comprehensively updated statistics recent illustrations and a variety of real world examples and case studies success in the asian market is crucial to many firms yet many marketing strategies are based on a western perspective of what consumers want and respond to in consumer behaviour in asia the authors argue that asian culture is so fundamentally different to western culture that existing consumer behaviour concepts cannot be applied to asian consumers in this book the authors outline and explain these differences and put forward modifications to many well known consumer behaviour concepts consumer behaviour in asia shows how firms need to modify their marketing strategies in such areas as segmentation positioning and the marketing mix in order to successfully penetrate these markets marketing management third edition builds on the multidisciplinary perspective and comprehensive coverage of its predecessors while emphasizing new technology and marketing procedures in today s market i e the internet and the marketing of high tech products in asia cross cultural analyses of marketing practices relationship marketing and customer relationship management in asia the text presents cutting edge marketing concepts and practices for asian marketing in the region s 12 most promising markets to provide an accessible analytically based universal marketing approach to asian insights the authors examine understanding marketing management analyzing marketing opportunities developing market strategies shaping the marketing offering and managing and delivering marketing programs for marketing professionals seminar paper from the year 2014 in the subject cultural studies miscellaneous grade 1 0 university of greenwich language english abstract this paper discusses the influence of asian cultural identity on global marketing over the course of the past decades globalisation has had a great impact on the every day lives of people around the globe due to the advances in technology and new inventions such as the internet and therefore the diminishing of boundaries people from various countries of the world are now more than ever able to be connected to each other travel and overcome far distances as well as purchase and consume products and services from all over the world the benefits of globalisation not only influence people in their daily lives but can also be applied to the way in which companies organise themselves as well as operate in their home and foreign markets the rise of global companies that sell and market products in foreign countries affected organisational work and created the need for global marketing strategies in order for these strategies to work the different cultural backgrounds and values of customers need to be taken into account mooij supports this idea by pointing out that in order for marketing or advertising to be effective it must include values that match the values of the consumers being addressed mooij 1998 p 91 mooij explains further that the way in which consumers behave and are motivated largely depends on their culture which is why marketing strategies need to be relevant to the culture of the consumer they are trying to address mooij m d 1998 this explains why marketing managers today face a number of challenges and are influenced by the cultural identity of the country they are marketing a product in asia has one of the largest economies of the world which makes it extremely attractive for companies seeking to expand globally east asia alone is home to about 20 percent of the world s population and is likely to make up an equally high share of the world trade chaze 2010 in the following this essay will try to explain how the asian culture in terms of group family and status orientation might culturally influence the way in which foreign companies market their products to asian consumers as well as discuss possible practical measures that should be taken by international marketers in this context explore current trends in the asian service industry asian dimensions of services marketing takes you on a journey through the service industries of asia due to the extraordinary amount of growth in asian service industries over the past few decades this sector is expanding greatly in many asian countries these changes have had many effects on countries such as china korea singapore and thailand mostly at the expense of agriculture and manufacturing this book examines these effects and establishes ways to achieve success in services marketing this educational book provides an enlightening look at topics such as the influence of reference groups in the service industry of singapore the moderating effect of switching costs on the relationship between service performance and customer satisfaction in the thai cultural and business setting how multinational professional service firms in south korea have achieved success the emotional impact of store atmosphere on chinese customers in a leisure service setting the rapid development of services in asia and how to effectively market intangibles to various kinds of consumers
