africa for the africans was the name given in africa to the extraordinary black social protest movement led by jamaican marcus mosiah garvey 1887 1940 volumes i vii of the marcus garvey and universal negro improvement association papers chronicled the garvey movement that flourished in the united states during the 1920s now the long awaited african volumes of this edition volumes viii and ix and a forthcoming volume x demonstrate clearly the central role africans played in the development of the garvey phenomenon the african volumes provide the first authoritative account of how africans transformed garveyism from an external stimulus into an african social movement they also represent the most extensive collection of documents ever gathered on the early african nationalism of the inter war period here is a detailed chronicle of the spread of garvey s call for african redemption throughout africa and the repressive colonial responses it engendered volume viii begins in 1917 with the little known story of the pan african commercial schemes that preceded garveyism and charts the early african reactions to the unia volume ix continues the story documenting the establishment of unia chapters throughout africa and presenting new evidence linking garveyism and nascent namibian nationalism coverage of publications outside the uk and in non english languages expands steadily until in 1991 it occupies enough of the guide to require publication in parts from the reviews astronomy and astrophysics abstracts has appeared in semi annual volumes since 1969 and it has already become one of the fundamental publications in the fields of astronomy astrophysics and neighbouring sciences it is the most important english language abstracting journal in the mentioned branches the abstracts are classified under more than a hundred subject categories thus permitting a quick survey of the whole extended material the aaa is a valuable and important publication for all students and scientists working in the fields of astronomy and related sciences as such it represents a necessary ingredient of any astronomical library all over the world space science reviews 1 dividing the whole field plus related subjects into 108 categories each work is numbered and most are accompanied by brief abstracts fairly comprehensive cross referencing links relevant papers to more than one category and exhaustive author and subject indices are to be found at the back making the catalogues easy to use the series appears to be so complete in its coverage and always less than a year out of date that i shall certainly have to make a little more space on those shelves for future volumes the observatory magazine 2 the french revolution swept away the old regime along with many of its ideas about epistemology history society and politics in the intellectual ferment that followed debates about religion figured prominently as diverse thinkers grappled with the philosophical and civil status of religion in a post revolutionary age arthur mccalla demonstrates the central place of religion in the intellectual life of post revolutionary france in religion and the post revolutionary mind certain questions what is the nature of religion does society rest on religious foundations what ought to be the place of religion in society drew sustained attention from across the political spectrum id ologues viewed religion as error and sought to eradicate it through the promotion of secular values catholic traditionalists understood religion as a body of revealed truths of supernatural origin that ought to be authoritative in all aspects of life liberals sought to replace christian orthodoxy with a new public faith consonant with liberal values but these blocs were not monolithic and mccalla reveals the complexities of each one as well as the dialogues and rivalries among them the categories established by the concepts of religion these thinkers constructed continue to shape debates over liberationist critiques liberal pluralism la cit  and political theology the place of religion in civil society is again a matter of urgent debate religion and the post revolutionary mind provides essential historical context for thinking about the status of religion in the contemporary world a critical account of the idea of intelligence in modern french literature and thought in the late nineteenth century psychologists and philosophers became intensely interested in the possibility of quantifying measuring and evaluating intelligence and using it to separate and compare individuals disarming intelligence analyzes how this polyvalent term was consolidated and contested in competing discourses from fin de si cle psychology and philosophy to literature criticism and cultural polemics around the first world war zakir paul examines how marcel proust henri bergson paul val ry and the critics of the influential nouvelle revue fran aise registered negotiated and subtly countered the ways intelligence was invoked across the political and aesthetic spectrum for these writers intelligence fluctuates between an individual sovereign faculty for analyzing the world and something collective accidental and contingent disarming intelligence shows how literary and critical styles questioned suspended and reimagined what intelligence could be by bringing elements of uncertainty and potentiality into its horizon the book also explores interwar political tensions from the extreme right to walter benjamin s engaged essays on contemporary french writers finally a brief coda recasts current debates about artificial intelligence by comparing them to these earlier crises of intelligence by drawing together and untangling competing conceptions of intelligence disarming intelligence exposes its mercurial but influential and urgent role in literary and cultural politics
