for too long the holy spirit has tended to be either disregarded or the object of fanatical exclamation in the life of the church especially in western christianity writes general editor robert boak slocum in his introduction to this stimulating collection of eighteen essays from a broad spectrum of noted authors the essays in this collection give attention to many ways of the spirit s life and activity for salvation and healing for making christ present in our lives and in the church for empowering our prayers and liturgies for our inspiration and gifting for transformation of the way we live for the redemption of the world and the ultimate coming of god s kingdom for the unity of our relationships with each other and god as we recognize the spirit s activity in our traditions and doctrines our prayers and liturgies and in all aspects of the life we live we may be better attuned to the leading of the spirit into the future of faith and our life in god engaging the spirit was first published as a special summer 2001 edition of the anglican theological review and is dedicated to the late charles p price theologian and professor at virginia seminary a posthumously published essay by dr price is a fitting and unique addition to the collection in adventures of the spirit phyllis sternberg perrakis brings together eleven american and canadian literary gerontologists to examine a new kind of adventure for the older woman in literature this volume of critical essays analyzes recent works by contemporary women writers whose characters midlife and later life changes are mapped in their narratives rather than focusing on the painful losses undergone by women of a certain age recent narratives explore a new kind of adventure of aging one that is spiritual in nature enabling new ways of being and becoming but open ended and capable of great variation in practice in particular these journeys of the spirit focus on the retrospective movement undergone by a midlife or older woman as she is led by inner or outer forces to assess where she has come from and decipher a shape or pattern to her journey these journeys do not leave the body behind as they map new spiritual territory rather they honor spirit's embrace of the natural world and relationships as well as its aspirations for evolving development and eternal existence the essays in adventures of the spirit employ a wide variety of critical lenses to chart these adventures including archetypal sufi post colonial and feminist analysis archival research aboriginal life writing and trauma theory these studies bring a new understanding to women's adventure of age in both literary texts and in life the essays in this volume examine the resurgence of the mother goddess religion among contemporary vietnamese following the economic renovation period in vietnam anthropologists explore the forces that compel individuals to become mediums and the social repercussions of their decisions and interactions
