when gene long editor of kluwer s handbook of contemporary philosophy of religion series first invited me to write the volume on analytic philosophy of religion i accepted with great enthusiasm my only explanation for that enthusiasm now is that i was younger and more naive at the time soon after starting work on the volume my enthusiasm was dampened by the daunting magnitude of the task i began as a sprinter and quickly settled into the pace of a long distance runner although i considered myself well read in the subject i soon discovered that i had a great deal of research to do to be confident that i had considered all of the major contributions to the various discussions issues and of religion as i read more and more problems found within analytic philosophy books and articles i realized that i had rushed into a territory already well trodden by the angels i am greatly impressed by the sophistication and subtlety of philosophical argument that characterize the different debates in contemporary analytic philosophy of religion this volume covers a vast amount of material i have endeavored to provide the fairest possible reading of different authors and in cases where i include my own critical evaluations and develop my own positions i have endeavored to provide the strongest possible interpretations of the positions i criticize
