this book was written out of a great love for the biblical text and out of an even greater curiosity about the people who wrote it the different chapters of the book are an invitation to a journey following those who composed the historical descriptions in the hebrew bible in an attempt to find out who they were when they wrote and where the main questions in the book are not what the historical description is and how much it indeed reflects what really happened but what the authors of the biblical historiography knew about the ancient past of israel and judah what they chose to include in their descriptions and what story they chose not to tell the untold story is an important key to understanding the purpose of biblical historiography the target audience for which it was intended and the message it carried the main conclusion is that biblical historiography was not written to tell what history was but to explain the present against the background of past events and through this to teach a lesson about the right way to behave in the present in order to ensure a good future this is how biblical historiography should be read and understood the radical message of jesus is that there is only one alternative to the common method of confronting violence with more violence the only alternative christian nonviolent peacemakers in america explores the spiritually active practice of compassionate nonviolence here is a journey through the lives of seven courageous american peacemakers who have embodied christian nonviolence and dedicated their lives to addressing the suffering caused by racial discrimination slavery poverty militarism nuclear weapons prisons environmental degradation and the psychology of fear and hatred here are highlights from the inspirational ideas and actions of martin luther king jr dorothy day thomas merton rufus jones thomas kelly jim douglass and kathy kelly they remind us that to be christian is to use the power of love to transform spiritual economic and social violence the great turning from violence to nonviolence is the story of christianity in america there has never been a more urgent time for this revolutionary teaching to be heard understood and lived it is no longer a choice my friends between violence and nonviolence it is either nonviolence or nonexistence martin luther king jr human beings are now facing the stark choice between survival and destruction amid myriad forms of violence the nonviolent peacemakers within this book can inspire the peacemaker within each of us to cultivate a direct relationship with god and love through contemplation meditation writing and compassionate action based in the life and teachings of jesus edited by david platt radical daniel l akin and tony merida this new commentary series projected to be 48 volumes takes a christ centered approach to expositing each book of the bible rather than a verse by verse approach the authors have crafted chapters that explain and apply key passages in their assigned bible books readers will learn to see christ in all aspects of scripture and they will be encouraged by the devotional nature of each exposition
