the overarching theme of this book is that the second coming of jesus happened in ad 72 and that therefore jesus is not coming again to rapture the church the book lays out a thorough exploration in support of this theme daniels prophecies are foundational especially his prophecy of the seventy weeks in daniel 9 2427 and his prophecy of four sequential fertile crescent mediterranean empires see daniel 7 the fourth empire or the roman empire is the key to understanding my theme with stress on the meaning of the horns on the head of the fourth beast see daniel 7 78 as proof of my theme i use the biblical code of two or three witnesses see e g deuteronomy 19 15 matthew 18 16 john 8 17 and 1 john 5 8 the three witnesses i give are daniel jesus and the collective apostles all of whom taught and agreed that jesus s second coming would take place before jesus s generation passed away matthew 24 34 furthermore i show how the epistles of the new testament reflect this theme by citing scores of passages from them for my readers to consider finally in chapter 5 of the book and in five appendixes i show how the book of revelation aptly interpreted fully agrees with this theme the proposed roadmap to peace between israel and the arabs is stalemated islamic terrorism is spreading around the world in response the american president initiates a global plan to defeat this enemy of democracy his invasion of three muslim nations is an aggressive attempt to force the arabs to sign for peace with israel only the father knows when his son will deliver his elect from the wrath to come christians don t know the day or the hour but we are exhorted to watch so we won't be deceived. Jesus warned when you see all these things know that it's near at the doors. Mat 24 33. What things the invasion of Jerusalem by the Antichrist is a sign Christ's coming is near for those who refuse to watch. Jesus promises to come like a thief. If this is true then why are most apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers proclaiming the Rapture must come before the Antichrist. Tragically the falling away of Christians is going to be far greater than we ever imagined. Those who overcome the Antichrist and his evil world system will never be blotted out of the book of life. This is the message of the hour for the strengthening of the body of Christ. Why because Jesus said it. Mat 24 25.

The second coming of Jesus Christ is the core of the biblical worldview, the climax of the biblical message, the cornerstone of biblical theology and the centrepiece of authentic biblical faith for the twenty-first century. At the heart of this bold opening statement by Stephen Motyer is the conviction that Jesus Christ is the centre of the scriptures. Even though he only appears at the end for the New Testament writers, Jesus Christ revolutionized their understanding of the scriptures and gave them a new centre around which to interpret the work of God in the world. And the climax of that work is the second coming of that same Jesus Christ. Jesus himself used the language of the scriptures to promise his coming again, the coming of the Son of Man. Hence we need the whole of scripture to understand what the second coming means for us today. The fact that the Bible ends with the prayer 'Come, Lord Jesus' (Revelation 22 20) is deeply appropriate. The second coming is the end of the biblical message, its omega point, its grand finale, the denouement when all the players in the drama of earth history, both human and angelic, are gathered in the drawing room to hear the Master unpack the plot and give the verdict. Motyer's comprehensive stimulating study is divided into two parts. Part one, 'The Biblical Frame', examines three Old Testament passages and lays the foundation for part two, 'New Testament Hopes and Visions', which explores a series of key texts. He focuses on the second coming rather than on millennialism or the end times in order to provide the fundamental biblical theology that must underlie our whole sense of God's future for his world.

The theme of this book is that in the incarnation, in the spirit, in the sacraments and in the judgment there is a single coming and that of man in his entirety to heaven. The creeds affirm that our Lord Jesus Christ came down from heaven to earth where he was born and died, that he ascended thence to heaven after his resurrection and that from heaven he shall come again in glory to judge the living and the dead. But the vision in the book of Daniel from which Christ took his title 'Son of Man' shows us a single coming only, the coming of the one like to a son of man to the Ancient of Days in heaven. And later in the same chapter the man is explained as the people of the saints of the Most High. Thus as there is only one coming so also is there one man who comes and our Lord's appropriation of the title shows that we must regard his whole redeeming work as part of a single movement. C. S. Lewis said of the original edition of 'The Coming of the Lord' which in a revised form makes up the first half of this book: 'I am simply delighted with it, delighted, excited and most grateful. I think it is the best book the author has yet done and the best theological book by anyone I have read for a long time.'
