pearls of wisdom for everyday living is a spiritual and inspirational book this book was written based on the author's spiritual and practical experience in life in 1998 the author rajkumar went through a health crisis and had successful open heart surgery to correct a congenital heart problem after the surgery he felt a shift in his awareness and decided to do meaningful things to help others he began having divine thoughts and guidance which led him to write about his spiritual journey and he published his first book from darkness to light in 2000 and his most recent book the secrets of health and healing in 2005 in this book he shares eastern philosophy spirituality and the art of living he believes that spirituality is beyond psychology and religion in life he suggests knowing oneself and finding god within he also emphasizes respect for all religions and spiritual masters and encourages people to integrate teachings from every religion into their daily lives he discourages misuse of religion as no religion teaches to hurt or kill other human beings all religious paths lead to the same god no religion is superior to another god is one and he does not belong to any society or a nation god is immortal impartial unconditional and universal the bible says that we should not make idols or set up an image or a sacred stone for ourselves god is a jealous god and he delights in the praises and worship of his children he promised that if we worship him and him only that he will make us rejoice over our enemies that your light will break forth like the dawn and your healing will quickly appear that your righteousness will go before you and the glory of the lord will be your rear guard then you will call and the lord will answer and you will cry for help and he will say here i am isaiah 58 8 when we talk about idols we tend to think of graven images but not so an idol is anything that we place before god it can be a spouse a friend money power drugs sex or anything that interfere or takes time away from our worship with god whatever you find yourself spending time with more than your time of worship with god is your idol we may not think of these things as idols but consider the amount of time we spend stressing or concentrating our focus on the things of the world that ultimately will be the cause of our losing our way to salvation sometimes we forget to honor the lord who makes all things available to us only because one of our personal idols require more of our time so we place god aside and focus our attention on wandering further away from him not knowing that he grieves at our disobedience but it is not too late the bible says that the arms of god are not short his ears are not deafened to our cries i know sometimes we may feel that god will not answer or forgive us because we keep going back to the very idol we confessed to have left but god wants to forgive us for that reason he sent his only son to die for our sins so that the world through him might be saved god knows how weak and sinful we are no matter how holy and righteous we may think we are ultimately we are powerless and wretched at best paul in ii corinthians says this of the flesh i was given a thorn in my flesh a messenger of satan to torment me three times i pleaded with the lord to take it away from me but he said to me my grace is sufficient for you for my power is made perfect in weakness paul also says that he tried to do good deeds but often ends up doing what he swore he would not do we are just like paul we are weak and impressionable and prone to sin that is why we need to have the holy spirit lead and guide our daily walk we need to prostrate ourselves lay our souls bare in front of he who pours out grace and forgiveness abundantly in christ we are not of this world but if we continue along the path of destruction we will find ourselves standing outside the gates of heaven asking lord where did i go wrong genesis 28 12 i am with you and will watch over you wherever you go and i will bring you back to this land i will not leave you until i have done what i have promised you let us ask god now to forgive us our sins so that we can fully partake of his bountiful promises this book examines the role of teaching within public education it critiques its function in today s educational policies and theories and establishes an alternative way of understanding teaching it explores teaching from within a sophist tradition of educational practice and thought the first part of the book discusses the vital link between public education and democracy the shifts in schooling s role in fostering competition and comparisons at the cost of social responsibility and democratisation it identifies the driving force of those shifts as forces of aggression and destruction central to a neoliberal ideology the second part of the book argues for a practice of sophisticated teaching rather than socratic teaching it explores in depth what it could mean to be teaching in an up to date sophist tradition of educational thought and practice the book also includes insights for teaching to counter aggressive forces of nationalism racism and late capitalism s violence and the escalating climate crisis readers will be able to understand teaching within educational thought and precisely how different teaching forms can contribute to education as democratisation in her latest book michele howe teaches us how to hone a grateful grace filled heart no matter what our circumstances when we focus on god's grace and respond with gratitude we happily discover that supernatural principle of inner joy and contentment despite whatever life might throw at us chapter by chapter readers will learn how to be thankful joyful content and even happy during life's hardships this happens when as children of god we train ourselves to view every situation within the lens of eternity as we learn to default to a grace filled attitude of gratitude we honor god by obeying the apostle paul's call to do all things without grumbling or complaining when we choose to respond with a faith driven acceptance rather than resort to grumbling or complaining god begins and continues his supernatural work of sanctification in our hearts we have always turned to prayer to share our hopes needs and fears with the scared power that sustains the universe we are inspired to give thanks for our blessings and seek to raise our minds and hearts into communion with the divine through prayer we grow develop and deepen our spiritual identities all the while enriching our relationships with others and with the whole of nature this inspirational and practical guide explores the many forms of prayer combining insightful text with beautiful prayers drawn from the world's spiritual traditions it will lead us to journey more deeply into the mystery of this most profound of human activities
