detective inspectors Vance and Shepherd reunite in the second book in John Broughton's Vance and Shepherd mysteries after a murder is committed in a quiet suburban subway under a tramline it becomes obvious that the murder squad is dealing with a copycat killer the murder is an uncanny repeat of their previous case and their inquiries are complicated by the presence of the main suspect's doppelganger Melanie Bradshaw the brilliant chemistry master student has solid alibis but Shepherd flying in the face of the contrary evidence is convinced that the deceased serial killer's sister and Melanie are the same person as the killings continue Vance and Shepherd face increasing pressure from above building can they apprehend and bring the killer to justice before more lives are lost who are the most important Canadian crime and detective writers how do they help represent Canada as a nation how do they distinguish Canada's approach to questions of crime detection and social justice from those of other countries the routledge introduction to canadian crime fiction provides a much needed investigation into how crime and detection have been and will be represented within canada's national literature with an attention to contemporary popular and literary texts the book draws together a representative set of established canadian authors who would appear in most courses on canadian crime and detective fiction while also introducing a few authors less established in the field ultimately the book argues that crime fiction is a space of enormously productive hybridity that offers fresh new approaches to considering questions of national identity gender race sexuality and even genre david hewson's the killing 3 is the novelization of the third series of the hit danish crime drama the killing detective inspector for homicide sarah lund is contacted by old flame mathias borch from national intelligence borch fears that what first appeared to be a random killing at the docks is the beginning of an assassination attempt on prime minister troels hartmann the murder draws attention towards the shipping and oil giant zeeland run by billionaire robert zeuthen when zeuthen's 9 year old daughter emilie is kidnapped the investigation takes on a different dimension as it soon becomes clear that her disappearance is linked to the murder of a young girl in jutland some years earlier hartmann is in the middle of an election campaign made all the more turbulent because of the mounting financial crisis he needs zeeland's backing lund needs to make sense of the clues left by emilie's perpetrator before it's too late and can she finally face the demons that have long haunted her
