offers the first overarching history of the humanities from antiquity to the present per the uk publisher william collins s promotional copy there is a quarter of this planet which is often forgotten in the histories that are told in the west this quarter is an oceanic one pulsating with winds and waves tides and coastlines islands and beaches the indian and pacific oceans constitute that forgotten quarter brought together here for the first time in a sustained work of history more specifically sivasundaram s aim in this book is to revisit the age of revolutions and empire from the perspective of the global south waves across the south ranges from the arabian sea across the indian ocean to the bay of bengal and onward to the south pacific and australia s tasman sea as the western empires dutch french but especially british reached across these vast regions echoes of the european revolutions rippled through them and encountered a host of indigenous political developments sivasundaram also opens the door to new and necessary conversations about environmental history in addition to the consequences of historical violence the extraction of resources and the indigenous futures that western imperialism cut short a new history of india now in its fifth edition explores today s affluent india this edition remains the most readable and illuminating one volume history of india and brings students up to date on current developments
