discourse on popular music frequently describes artists recordings and performances as intimate yet that discourse often stops short of elucidating how a mass produced commodity such as popular music is able to elicit feelings of intimacy with and among its audience through detailed analysis of popular music's composition, performance, production and promotion. Musical Intimacy examines how intimacy is constructed and perceived in popular music via its affective and technological affordances from the recording studio to the concert stage from collective experience to individual listening and perception. This book presents a working understanding of musical intimacy.

Learn about music and emotion in this beautifully produced anthology. Do you remember the first time you discovered an artist you really loved? Have you listened to them over and over again at different points throughout your life? This book harnesses that feeling by collecting together 80 of music's finest artists to guide young people through the good, bad, and sad times. Whatever the feeling, these artists have been there and sung about it. Organised by mood, young ones can dip into the library to discover new artists from decades past to present day. Fall in love with Mariah Carey, shout about it with Nirvana, love yourself with Lizzo, or cry it out with Adele. With 80 artists, bands, and composers from all genres including classical, there's something for every family member to love and recommend to the next generation. Each entry contains biographical information on each artist, lists must-hear songs, and has accessible musical analysis from author and journalist Myles Tanzer. Every artist is captured in full-colour rocking art by Ali Mac. With information at the front on how to soundtrack your mood and information at the back on how to listen to and make your own music, a pitch-perfect first introduction to music for tweens.
