children's book in rhyming story for kids from 3 to 8 years in a cozy little town lived a curious cat named nico one day while watching tv he saw something amazing the first man to fly into space from then on nico couldn't stop thinking about spaceships and robots and most of all landing on the moon with the help of his feline friend eric nico set out to build a rocket out of wood and paper

thus speaks the divane dynamite i only know of one divinity kindness save kindness all else is fiction from the fundamental facts of physics to the direst doctrines of scripture every construct of society must prove its worth in relation to kindness in relation to uplift if they can't they require correction and despite countless corrections if a construct fails to uphold the uplift of human condition before all else it is the duty of the civilized beings to leave such construct behind as an appendage of human evolution
