a 1 bestseller in india three generations of delhi shopkeepers confront a changing world home tells the story of banwari lal family merchants in one of the oldest districts of delhi an immigrant from pakistan banwari lal believes in fate faith and hard work he comes to india after the partition and opens a sari business his daughter is given away into an arranged marriage with tragic consequences his eldest son is determined to marry for love he soon sets his sights on beautiful seventeen year old sona who walks into the family shop one fine day in may of 1965 but it is banwari lal s granddaughter nisha who will become the family s heart as they move from sorrow to prosperity spanning thirty years home is an extraordinary novel about tradition change and finding a place in which to belong in this scholarly book dr rohidas nitonde examines manju kapurs novels with a feminist perspective the study offers an in depth analysis of all the five novels by kapur it is for the first time that all her works are illustrated with a single perspective the focus of argument leads to conclude on kapurs vision of indian womanhood the book explains kapurs indubitable ability to explore the psyche of the present day urban educated middle class indian woman who is trapped in the midway between tradition and modernity it is an attempt to study kapurs women protagonists as portrayed by her in her novels with a view to understand and appreciate their trials and tribulations under the impact of the conflicting influence of tradition and modernity and to critically analyze their response to the emerging situation in life so as to fit themselves in the contemporary society it also probes deeply into the novelists conviction of what would serve as the ideal panacea for the different kinds of challenges faced by her female characters it as well explores both the daring and desires of the indian women in the fictional works of kapur the study is divided into seven chapters the first chapter is introductory in nature the subsequent five chapters deal with the five women protagonists virmati astha nisha nina and ishita who finding themselves trapped in the roles assigned to them by the society attempt to assert their individuality sensitive to the changing times and situations they revolt against the traditions in their search for freedom the last chapter concludes the study by bringing out the general statement about kapurs female protagonists its bibliography and webliography sections are exhaustive this has turned the authoritative work into an indispensable resource for academicians and research scholars it is an invaluable reference on manju kapur an engrossing portrait of an arranged marriage from the prize winning author of home and difficult daughters nina is a thirty year old english lecturer in new delhi living with her widowed mother and frustrated by how little life has to offer ananda has recently emigrated to halifax canada having spent his twenties painstakingly building his career he searches for something to complete his new life when an arranged marriage is proposed nina is uncertain can she really give up her home and her country to build a new life with a husband she barely knows the consequences of change are far greater than she could have imagined as the two of them struggle to adapt to married life nina s whole world is thrown into question and as certain truths threaten the marriage her fragile new life in canada begins to unravel poignant and intimate the immigrant is an honest exploration of a marriage what it costs to start again and what we can never leave behind today gender studies as an interdisciplinary academic field has gained much momentum in india contrary to conventional idea that a person born either as a boy or a girl must conform to his or her sex in his or her growth dress and behaviour modern indian outlooks have rather started changing with the fast approaching new gender free world crowded with agender bigender genderfluid genderqueer non binary and third gender people against conventional gender binary male and female last few years apart from schemes for women s security and empowerment have also seen the announcement of many welfare schemes for the health and well being of third gender people of india and decriminalisation of homosexuality from indian soil with same spirit the present anthology is an endeavour to shed some light on the glaring issues of rape abuse discrimination exploitation and violence arising out of gender essentialism in indian context the anthology with an aim to serving larger sections of humanity covers twenty seven multidisciplinary articles hardly missing any aspect untouched from this field of study in indian context this is the most up to date list of resources on manju kapur it includes the novels and interviews by kapur as well as monographs articles and journal articles on manju kapur for a long time queer people have fought for their right to get recognized and accepted by society only after the struggle of centuries queer people have finally secured a place in society over the years queer literature has developed significantly and has paved the way for a society where gender fluidity and queer identities are celebrated queer literature has undergone significant changes and it has become more bold and unapologetic it defies the social standards of heteronormativity and inspires people to be free in their sexual identity and celebrate their authentic selves without fearing judgment from society queer literature has not only talked about queer lives but it has also highlighted the complexities of queer life
