estamos convencidos que la tarea más importante que habría que acometer para dar solución al sector de la edificación especialmente en una época de crisis severa es comenzar a entenderlo como cualquier otro sector industrial manufacturero que produce bienes inmuebles destinados a la edificación por lo que la tarea más urgente es conseguir su industrialización para mejorar su calidad el precio de los productos edificatorios la seguridad y salud laboral minimizando su excesiva siniestralidad y la mejora de la relación calidad precio es decir para tratar de conducirlo a la excelencia dentro de la cual podemos incluir el problema de las responsabilidades de los aparejadores que nos preocupan muy especialmente la industrialización efectiva de la edificación debería conllevar un nuevo enfoque de esas responsabilidades de forma que se pareciera a lo que ocurre en otros sectores industriales con este libro lo que pretendemos es que los distintos agentes en especial los técnicos se conciencien del problema y ponga al servicio de su solución sus mentes acostumbradas a resolver los problemas complejos que con frecuencia se les presentan en el ejercicio habitual de su profesión no cabe duda alguna de que se trata de una tarea muy difícil pero creo que todos los técnicos estarán de acuerdo en que en el sector de la edificación sobran leyes y faltan soluciones técnicas inteligentes y prácticas destinadas a que resuelvan realmente los problemas no a que los compliquen o para que sirvan de plataforma a los teóricos para realizar tareas de lucimiento doctrinal absolutamente teóricas y que en ocasiones complican más que resuelven el lector tiene delante un libro sobre la profesión de aparejador que a pesar de lo que algunos piensen ha sido y es una de las más importantes en el sector de la edificación desde que tenemos noticias históricas de ella el código de hammurabi es uno de los compendios de leyes más antiguos que han encontrado los historiadores y uno de los ejemplares mejor conservados de este tipo de documentos elaborados en la antigua mesopotamia su contenido se basa en la aplicación de la ley del talión y es también uno de los primeros ejemplos del uso del principio de presunción de inocencia pues su normativa sugiere que el acusado o el acusador tienen la oportunidad de aportar pruebas este código escrito por el rey de babilonia hammurabi en idioma acadio para que pudiera ser leído por cualquier persona alfabetizada en el año 1750 a c unificó los códigos de leyes existentes en las ciudades del imperio babilónico su prólogo y su epílogo están redactados en un lenguaje más cuidadoso con la evidente finalidad de glorificar al dios babilonio marduk o shamash y a través de él a su rey la copia más antigua del código de hammurabi está actualmente conservada en el museo del louvre de parís entre otras recopilaciones de leyes en el contenido del código de hammurabi se incluyeron el código de ur nammu rey de ur ca siglo xxi a c las leyes de ešnunna ca siglo xx a c y el código de lipit ishtar de isin ca siglo xix a c a pesar de que el enunciado ojo por ojo diente por diente se suele ver como la inspiración del código de hammurabi la verdad es que el mismo tiene además artículos muy alejados de ese concepto es cierto que en algunos casos la ley opta por el talión y establece que debe hacerse lo que el agresor le hizo a la víctima es el caso de los artículos 196 el ojo 197 el hueso y 200 el diente pero esa visión es imperfecta y depende de las circunstancias y principalmente de la condición de los involucrados se podría decir que el código de hammurabi está inspirado por un alto sentimiento de orden por ejemplo fija la responsabilidad mutua del amo y del obrero este último tiene que recibir un salario mínimo y tres días de vacaciones cada mes una muestra de la sistematizada y estructurada sociedad que reflejan estas leyes en el código de hammurabi no se distingue entre derecho civil y penal es decir se dictan leyes que regulan los asuntos de la vida cotidiana y leyes que castigan los delitos asimismo se regulan el comercio el trabajo asalariado los préstamos los alquileres las herencias los divorcios la propiedad las penas por delitos de robo asesinato etc
