the enchanted meadow we've been waiting for someone like you. Emma said her eyes growing in surprise. Who are you? she asked with awe in her voice. Pip laughed and led Emma to a field where he had hidden a bunch of magical animals. There were playful pixies who liked to play tricks, kind nymphs who took care of the flowers, and wise old tree spirits who kept the secrets of the forest safe. They looked in all the corners and crevices of the meadow together, finding secret treasures and figuring out what was going on below the surface. Emma found herself talking to the animals who told her stories of where they had been and what they knew. Emma went deeper into the field and saw a beautiful old tree with branches that reached all the way to the sky. It was tall and proud, and its bark had a lot of symbols and pictures carved into it. Emma was pulled to the tree by the feeling of ancient wisdom that it gave off. Welcome, young adventurer, a soft voice said from the tree. Elderwood told Emma, I am Elderwood, the guardian of this enchanted realm. He told her stories about the magical world and told her that she has a special talent. She can talk to nature. She could feel the pulse of life in the trees, hear the sounds of the wind, and understand what animals were saying just by touching them. Emma was able to protect the enchanted meadow with her new abilities. She worked with the animals in the forest to take care of the plants and keep the balance of the magical realm. She learned how to heal hurt animals, bring back dead flowers, and make the field peaceful again whenever it was in danger. As time went on in the enchanted meadow, Emma's heart grew to love this wonderful place more and more. She wished she could stay there forever, but she knew she had to go back to her own life. The animals in the field said goodbye to her with tears in their eyes. They promised to always remember her and the magic she had brought into their lives. Emma went back to the trees near her house as soon as she walked back in the door. She remembered the bright meadow, the sweet tunes, and the laughs of the animals. She couldn't see after that. Emma looked at the world with new eyes. She saw the magic and beauty in all living things. She knew that even in the most ordinary things, there was a spark of magic waiting to be found. She would close her eyes, listen to the wind whisper, and let her thoughts take her back to the enchanted meadow whenever she missed it. Emma told her friends and family about her amazing trip, and the stories she told about the enchanted meadow held their attention. She taught kids to love the beauty of nature and to believe in the magic that is all around them. They went on hikes through woods, meadows, and streams together. They listened to the songs of the birds, picked up pretty leaves, and were amazed by the intricate patterns on the flowers. Emma told them to close their eyes open their hearts and feel the magical animals that live in every corner of nature that they can't see. Emma's adventures quickly got around and kids from nearby towns came to find her to hear her stories and try out the magic for themselves. Emma became a great storyteller. She would gather kids under the shade of an old twisted tree and use her words to paint beautiful pictures. Every time Emma told a story she took her listeners to the enchanted meadow and let their minds run wild. They laughed with the happy pixies, danced with the beautiful nymphs and listened to the wise wisdom of elderwood. Emma's stories brought out the magic in each child, making them feel closer to nature and giving them their own sense of wonder. Emma's stories have kept inspiring people for a long time. Her stories were told to children by their parents, which kept the magic of the enchanted meadow alive. The tree with the little door became a place for kids to hang out and a doorway to their own worlds of making things up and learning new things. Emma would never forget how magic the field made her feel. She went there often to get comfort and ideas from the wind's words and the sounds of nature. She realized that the magic she'd found wasn't just in a secret place but was all around her, ready to be discovered by people with open hearts and minds. So Emma, the girl who found the old twisted tree, kept celebrating the magic of the enchanted meadow for the rest of her life. Her stories and spirit lived on, making both kids and grown-ups want to go on adventures, solve mysteries and enjoy the beauty and wonder of the natural world. For the magic of the enchanted meadow would live on in the realm of fantasy and the embrace of nature. Emma started to look around this beautiful place with wide open eyes. Soon she met Oliver, a friendly squirrel who could talk and became her guide and friend. Oliver called the secret world enchanted. He said it was a place where magic grew and where mythical animals lived.

Exclusive magical secrets was originally published by the Magician Ltd as a limited edition of 1000 in 1912. It was bound with a lock on the cover and became known as the locked book of magical secrets. The author, Will Goldston, was born in 1878 in Liverpool and first went on stage under the name Carl Devo. He later became the manager/buyer of Gamage's theatrical and entertainment department. Goldston was an early member of the Magic Circle but resigned and formed his own society, the Magicians Club of London, with Harry Houdini as president, a post he held until his death. He set up in business as William Goldston Ltd in Aladdin House near Leicester Square in London, where he sold magic tricks. The business was later bought by Davenport's, the famous London magic shop. He edited a number of publications: Magician Annual 1907-1912, Magician Monthly 1904-1913.

magazine of magic 1914 1930 and golston s magical quarterly 1934 1940 if he had been alive today it is likely that will goldston would have been one of the most famous people in the world of magic as it is his legacy stands not only in his writings but also in the inspiration he gave to future generations of magicians like many other books of this era some of the tricks described use substances and methods that would be considered dangerous today and are most likely unobtainable however as magicians are always re inventing old tricks in many cases there are simple substitutes you are warned however not to take any risks as with other offerings in the golden age of magic series this volume is not a straightforward reproduction of the original text there are a number of reasons for this the main one as with almost all early books is that the typefaces used frequently make reading a chore rather than a pleasure there is also the fact that the original printings were poorly edited resulting in spelling errors and sometimes mistakes which completely alter the meaning of the text wherever possible we have endeavored to reproduce illustrations from the original to the highest possible standard and in many cases have been able to improve them however you should be aware that some illustrations in the original books were themselves copied from documents that were then many years old and some reproductions may not be to present day standards however we have taken the liberty of producing the book to make it both accurate and accessible we would hope that were the author alive today he would very much approve of this edition
