the first vol of alexander describes how the combined discipline and passion of his parents formed the talented alexander then portrays the start of his great adventure to conquer the civilised world in ancient times the sands of tybee island though written as a novel is based on a true story the story is about the year that i was going through the transition from being a little boy into being a teenager it s about how my daddy balanced out my mother s parental alienation through her hostile aggressive style of parenting the story tells how daddy and mr andrew s treatment of me prevented serious damage to my mental and emotional well being during these years of conflicting treatment by my parents i became vulnerable to mental manipulation and bulling by mother during my early years as a child i often felt that i was the problem i saw mother as my enemy to be feared hated and avoided my years as a child were disturbing confusing and often very frightening to me i was robbed of a sense of security and safety as it turned out in 1957 i was also moving from boyhood into the beginnings of becoming a man this is not just my story but in many ways it s every young boy s story it s the story of the men who had a tremendous influence on my early development and the men in the lives of other young boys and the role they play in helping maturity come about so you men who may read this book be aware of the shadow you cast in the young lives around you
