with 25 years of experience working on multicultural mission teams roembke helps the reader to identify and clarify credibility factors as well as problem areas of multicultural teams she also offers concrete points of action for mission executives team leaders and missionaries whether they are seeking training for new missionaries or seeking to make changes to existing teams ultimately the aim of this book is to deal with concerns of multicultural mission teams so they can live together in such a way as to attract others to the person of christ

it was not the european and american churches which evangelised africa but the mission societies the missions from the great awakening such as the london missionary society and church missionary society or the holy ghost fathers and the white fathers which started the process of sub saharan africa becoming a christian continent are well known and documented less known and less documented are the interdenominational faith missions which began in 1873 with the aim of visiting the still unreached areas of africa north africa the sudan belt and the congo basin missions such as the africa inland mission or sudan interior mission gave birth to some of the big churches like ecwa in nigeria and africa inland church in kenya it is the aim of this book to describe faith missions and their theology and to present an overview of the early development of faith missions insofar as they touched africa themelios is an international evangelical peer reviewed theological journal that expounds and defends the historic christian faith themelios is published three times a year online at the gospel coalition thegospelcoalition.org/themelios and in print by wipf and stock its primary audience is theological students and pastors though scholars read it as well themelios began in 1975 and was operated by rtsf uccf in the uk and it became a digital journal operated by the gospel coalition in 2008 the editorial team draws participants from across the globe as editors essayists and reviewers general editor d a carson trinity evangelical divinity school managing editor brian tabb bethlehem college and seminary consulting editor michael j ovey oak hill theological college administrator andrew david naselli bethlehem college and seminary book review editors jerry hwang singapore bible college alan thompson sydney missionary bible college nathan a finn southeastern baptist theological seminary hans madueme covenant college dane ortlund crossway jason sexton golden gate baptist seminary editorial board gerald bray beeson divinity school lee gatiss wales evangelical school of theology paul helseth university of northwestern st paul paul house beeson divinity school ken magnuson the southern baptist theological seminary jonathan pennington the southern baptist theological seminary james robson wycliffe hall mark d thompson moore theological college paul williamson moore theological college stephen witmer pepperell christian fellowship robert yarbrough covenant seminary to put it bluntly business as mission bam is a work in progress it is a field that needs definition theological clarity and missiological focus our call for papers for our regional conferences is timely to make a pivotal contribution in a sea of some confusion and even controversy doug pennoyer dean of sis biola university and president of ems this volume will provide some definition and precision while identifying areas that demand further discussion not since roland allen s book in 1912 has there appeared such a thorough study of the apostle paul s mission theology and methodology the value of this comprehensive survey writes harry r boer in the foreword lies in part in its grounding in careful expository studies of paul s ministry as revealed in acts and in the corpus of the pauline epistles again and again the author illustrates the abiding relevance of paul s first century insights for missionary thought and practice in the twentieth century he draws not only on scripture but also on personal insights and illustrations arising from two decades of missionary service and he enters into significant dialogue with representative missionary literature of the modern period the book s five parts cover theology the sources and nature of paul s theology and his theological assumptions for mission conversion paul s conversion in acts conversion as reality experience and process and conversion and the real world the convert s new life what its spiritual basis is and how to live it the church its oneness diversity and contextuality its leadership worship discipline and finance and the missionary his or her credentials and ministry paul s theology was irresistible because it was energized by a fresh life changing experience and supported by a new love for all people writes the author in the introduction he then elaborates on four characteristics of that theology it is dynamic evangelical pastoral and holistic the absolute commitment of mind and body soul and spirit that was paul s his love for the lord jesus and lost people everywhere concludes the author in the epilogue must be the very heart of the church
