the visual history of how we deal with death the grief and mourning the funerals symbols and ceremonies is fascinatingly rich focusing on the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and travelling from victorian england across to the us beyond the veil is a visual tour through this curious world charting the often peculiar and at times macabre ways of how the living memorialise the dead humans have always had ways of marking death but in victorian england death became a morbid obsession that went global death was as much celebrated as it was a source of fear and sadness queen victoria herself became a figurehead of grief after the death of her beloved prince albert in 1861 her ensuing fascination with death took many visual forms from her ritualised embrace of black clothing to the building of ostentatious monuments and massively influenced cultural norms in both the uk and further afield the victorians built complex cemeteries collected precious memento mori commissioned bizarre death portraits and obsessed over the correct mourning attire and funerary protocol while turn of the century america saw reflections of many of these cultural phenomena the bestsellers of the period were often about life and death think frankenstein and dracula while the art architecture and style with its often dark and heavy gothic overtones revelled in the glamorisation of death beyond the veil brings this extraordinarily elaborate and stylised visual culture together while expertly explaining and elaborating on its most peculiar and fascinating aspects does islam as a religion oppress women is islam against democracy in this classic study internationally renowned sociologist fatema mernissi argues that women s oppression is not due to islam because this religion celebrates women s power women s oppression she maintains is due to political manipulation of religion by power seeking archaic muslim male elites mernissi explains that early muslim scholars portrayed women as aggressive hunters who forced men reduced to weak hunted victims to control women by imposing institutions such as veiling which confined women to the private space in her new introduction she argues that women s aggressive invasion of the 500 plus arab satellite channels in the twenty first century including as commanding show anchors film and video stars supports her theory that islam as a religion celebrates female power many in the church are waiting with expectation for the second coming of christ the parable of the wedding feast in matthew 22 tells us that the church the bride was invited to the wedding but didn t come in 2 thessalonians paul warns that the second coming would be preceded by a great falling away and matthew 24 says that if these days were not cut short then even the elect could be deceived with thousands of christian denominations preaching a different gospel let us examine scripture from the earliest perspective which is that of the early church the early church fathers were the spiritual sons of the apostles who learned directly from jesus they tell us what the end would be like and unlock the deeper meanings of scripture while many today are waiting to be raptured these apostolic men believed that the glory of god would first manifest in his church the apocalypse often misunderstood to mean the end of the world is simply two greek words put together apo to destroy and kalypto the veil the book of revelation is about destroying the veil to enter back into the glory of god these revelatory teachings were passed down and preserved for hundreds of years yet for the most part the opposite is being taught in the body of christ today jesus tells us in matthew 17 that elijah is coming and will restore all things this elijah spirit is upon us now to make the way straight through revelatory teaching of scripture and to bring the fear of the lord back to wake up the sleeping church while there s still time the early church taught that without elijah preparing and sealing the church not one would be saved at the same time under the leadership of the catholic church a second sealing is taking place with all major christian denominations coming into covenant with islam buddhism and hinduism saying there are many ways to god the great apostasy is here but nothing will stop this final move of god the world will see a full restoration of his glory on earth as it is in heaven through revelation or an apocalypse let us step behind the veil to have full access to the glory of god and his redemptive plan for us as his children for the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the lord as the waters cover the sea hab 2 14
