one of the most fascinating dimensions of online chat and cybersex are the ways that their medium the internet allows people to reconfigure relationships between self body and social interaction online chat participants discursively write a self into existence in a disembodied medium that allows for extreme fluidity and multiplicity cybersex participants evoke bodies in words and images manipulating relationships between selfhood and the corporeal body perhaps never before have so many people been actively involved in social psychological experiments in which they redefine themselves in ways that are so distinctively at the cutting edge of important social and cultural transformations based on over 150 interviews with online chat and cybersex participants self games and body play is an empirically grounded analysis of how these unique experiences provide a lens for better understanding the nature of personhood in everyday life

elizabeth johnson s resistance and empowerment in black women s hair styling develops the argument that one way black women define themselves and each other is by the way they style groom their hair via endorsement by the media through advertisement idealized identification of black female celebrities and encouragement by professional celebrity hair stylists who serve as change agents as a result hair becomes a physical manifestation of their self identity revealing a private and personal mindset her research answers the following questions what is the relationship between black females choice of hairstyles grooming and transmitted messages of aesthetics by the dominant culture through culturally specific magazines what role do the natural hair blogs vlogs play as a change agent in encouraging or discouraging consumers grooming their hair in its natural state what impact does a globalized consumer market of black hair care products have on hispanic latinas and bi racial women are black female generation y members more likely to receive backlash for failure to conform their hair to dominant standards in their hair adornment in the workplace johnson thus demonstrates that the major concern from messages sent to black women about their hair is its impact on black identity thus the goal of black women should be to break with hegemonic modes of seeing thinking and being for full liberation this critical and deep consciousness will debunk the messages told to black women that their kinky frizzy thick hair is undesirable bad unmanageable and shackling
