back in 1994 at the game company core design in derby lara croft was born through eighteen months of pure hard work from the team tomb raider was released in 1996 and became the success that we see today taking part in the mid nineties celebrations of brit pop and girl power this is the story of the team who were involved in creating the first two games then leaving the series to a new team in 1998 lara croft brought class comedy and a james bondian role to the game dreamt up by toby gard and helped to become a pitch with paul douglas the game was a gamble but because everyone at the company believed in it it led to huge success for everyone except for toby and paul the making of tomb raider goes into detail of how lara and the games were born alongside why toby gard and paul douglas left before the sequel was released throughout eleven chapters of countless interviews this book will tell you who was responsible for creating the first two games from its levels its music the many voices of lara croft and much more the team also reveals all about the star of the second game winston the butler and how he came to be by joss charmet over twenty people were interviewed for this story from the pitch for what would be tomb raider alongside the challenges along the way up until the release of tomb raider 2 in 1997

how do historians make sense of the spatial layeredness of the past cyrus schayegh argues that the modern world's ultimate socio spatial feature is not the oft studied processes of globalization or state formation or urbanization but rather the fast paced mutually transformative intertwinements of cities regions states and global circuits are unique occurrences in life that stop and give you pause mere coincidences or are they really perfectly timed miracles from god when completely healthy 4 year old quentin's sudden mysterious ailments result in a diagnosis of leukemia his mother chooses to believe that the diagnosis is an answer to prayer she also begins to recognize that everything that has happened leading up to the diagnosis and everything that will happen on the way to quentin's total healing is the work of the lord the summer of superheroes and the making of iron boy is a chronicle of all those blessings otherwise known as miracles the making of new world slavery argues that independent commerce geared to burgeoning consumer markets was the driving force behind the rise of plantation slavery the baroque state sought successfully to feed upon this commerce and with markedly less success to regulate slavery and racial relations to illustrate this thesis blackburn examines the deployment of slaves in the colonial possessions of the portuguese the spanish the dutch the english and the french plantation slavery is shown to have emerged from the impulses of civil society not from the strategies of individual states robin blackburn argues that the organization of slave plantations placed the west on a destructive path to modernity and that greatly preferable alternatives were both proposed and rejected finally he shows that the surge of atlantic trade predicated on the murderous toil of the plantations made a decisive contribution to both the industrial revolution and the rise of the west

this book analyses the founding years of consumer law and consumer policy in europe it combines two dimensions the making of national consumer law and the making of european consumer law and how both are intertwined the chapters on germany italy the nordic countries and the united kingdom serve to explain the economic and the political background which led to different legal and policy approaches in the then old member states from the 1960s onwards the chapter on poland adds a different layer the one of a former socialist country with its own consumer law and how joining the eu affected consumer law at the national level the making of european consumer law started in the 1970s rather cautiously but gradually the european commission took an ever stronger position in promoting not only european consumer law but also in supporting the building of the european consumer organisation beuc the umbrella organisation of the national consumer bodies the book unites the early protagonists who were involved in the making of consumer law in europe guido alpa ludwig kr mer ewa letowska hans w micklitz klaus tonner iain ramsay and thomas wilhelmsson supported by the younger generation aneta wiewi rowska domagalska mateusz grochowski and koen docter who reconstructs the history of beuc niklas olsen and thomas roethe analyse the construction of this policy field from a historical and sociological perspective this book offers a unique opportunity to understand a legal and political field that of consumer law and policy which plays a fundamental role in our contemporary societies in the tradition of theodore white s landmark books the definitive look at how donald j trump shocked the world to become president from roger stone a new york times bestselling author longtime political adviser and friend to donald trump and consummate republican strategist comes the first in depth examination of how trump s campaign tapped into the national mood to deliver a stunning victory that almost no one saw coming in the early hours of november 9 2016 one of the most contentious polarizing and vicious presidential races came to an abrupt and unexpected end when heavily favored presidential hopeful hillary clinton called donald j trump to concede shocking a nation that had only hours before given little credence to his chances donald trump pulled the greatest upset in american political history despite a torrent of invective and dismissal of the mainstream media stone a long time trump retainer and confidant gives us the inside story of how donald trump almost single handedly harnessed discontent among forgotten americans despite running a guerrilla style grass roots campaign to compete with the smooth running and free spending clinton political machine from the start trump s campaign was unlike any seen on the national stage combative maverick and fearless trump s nomination was the hostile takeover of the republican party and a resounding repudiation of the failed leadership of both parties whose policies have brought america to the brink of financial collapse as well as endangering our national security here stone outlines how donald trump skillfully ran as the anti open borders candidate as well as a supporter of american sovereignty and how he used the globalist trade deals like nafta to win over three of ten bernie sanders supporters the veteran adviser to nixon reagan and trump charts the rise of the alt conservative media and the end of the mainstream media monopoly on voter impacting information dissemination this is an insider s view that includes studying opposition research into bill hillary and chelsea clinton s crimes and the struggle by the republican establishment to stop trump and how they underestimated him stone chronicles trump s triumph in three debates where he skillfully lowered expectation levels but skewered mrs clinton for the corruption of the clinton foundation her mishandling of government email and her incompetence as secretary of state stone gives us the inside word on julian assange wikileaks clinton campaign chief john podesta huma abedin anthony weiner carlos danger doug band jeffery epstein and the efforts to hide the former first lady s infirmities and health problems stone dissects the phony narrative that trump was in cahoots with russian strongman vladimir putin or that the e mails released by wikileaks came from the russians the making of the president 2016 reveals how trump brilliantly picked at hillary clinton s weaknesses particularly her reputation as a crooked insider and ignited the passions of out of work white men and women from the rust belt and beyond at a time when millions of americans desperately wanted change stone also reveals how and why the mainstream media got it wrong including how the polls were loaded and completely misunderstood who would vote stone s analysis is akin to theodore h white s seminal book the making of the president 1960 it is both a sweeping analysis of the trends that elected trump as well as the war stories of a hard bitten political survivor who donald trump called one tough cookie when women were admitted to the royal academy schools in 1860 female art students gained a foothold in the most conservative art institution in england the royal female college of art the south kensington schools and the slade school of fine art also produced increasing numbers of women artists their entry into a male dominated art world altered the perspective of other artists and the public they came from disparate levels of society princess louise the fourth daughter of queen victoria studied sculpture at the national art training school yet they all shared ambition talent and courage analyzing their education and careers this book argues that the women who attended the art schools during the 1860s and 1870s including kate greenaway elizabeth butler helen allingham evelyn de morgan and henrietta rae produced work that would accommodate yet subtly challenge the orthodoxies of the fine art establishment without their contributions victorian art would be not simply the poorer but hardly recognizable to us today
