in this report the political and constitutional reform committee gives its assessment of the process of government formation following the may 2010 general election in general the committee finds that the process went well but it also suggests some practical improvements and clarifications among the key findings is that clearer guidance is still needed on the circumstances under which a prime minister should resign and when he has a duty to remain in office the report also proposes enhanced processes for ensuring that governments understand and are discouraged from breaching restrictions on their activity that apply before and immediately after general elections the committee concludes that as a coalition government s programme for government cannot be put directly to the people the house of commons needs to have the opportunity to subject these proposals to full pre legislative scrutiny

the story of the mahabharata is not only of the great war between the kouravas and pandavas for a period of eighteen days in the battlefield of kurukshetra near delhi as a matter of fact the supreme lesson held out by the great epic is the one with which vyasa deva the author starts viz when men live together as one family they not only thrive but they exist as a great community or race as long as the pandavas and kauravas lived together they not only thrived as two great wings of a race but as one and the same race of the kurus as we proceed with the story of the mahabharata we notice how this was stabilised as long as they lived together with each other and we have noticed how the great war reduced the powerful kurus and decimated them to a struggling few to call themselves as remnants of the great kuru race this holds good not only in the case of few families living together in small units but number of races living in the world culminating in the truth noticed in the maxim one world one family which is the title of the next work by the same author
