teaching with film is not a new approach in the social studies classroom different publications such as hollywood or history have bridged the gap with challenges attached to using historical film and engage students through inquiry not entertainment to continue with the hollywood or history strategy this text uses television shows sitcoms to bring issue centered curriculum to middle and high school classrooms by exploring issues in specific episodes students can learn the history behind an issue relate it to their lives and develop an informed decision associated with the issue the college career and civic life c3 framework is an integral part to the exploration of issue centered curriculum in each chapter the students will work through the four dimensions and develop critical thinking reading and writing skills my hope is that this text can play a small role in walking practicing teachers through the c3 framework while allowing students to learn about issues that affect society and the communities where they live discusses ways to determine if a school building is sick the causes of sick school building syndrome such as heating ventilating air conditioning air quality problems radon asbestos school floor coverings lead poisoning formaldehyde etc and its treatment and remedial steps that can be taken
